

REMARKS

Claims 5-8 are pending in the above-identified application. Claim 5 is herein amended. No new matter has been entered. It is respectfully submitted that this Amendment is fully responsive to the Office Action dated June 12, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. §103

Claims 5-8 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) as unpatentable over Bayeh et al. (hereinafter Bayeh, U.S. Patent No. 6,012,098).

Applicants respectfully disagree with the Examiner's reasons for rejecting claims 5-8 for the reasons stated in the previous responses and for the reasons discussed below. However, to expedite prosecution and clarify the subject matter of the present invention, Applicants hereby amend claim 5 to further distinguish the claimed invention from the Bayeh system. Accordingly, in view of this amendment and the following remarks, Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner withdraw the obviousness rejection of claims 5-8.

In order to establish a prima facie case of obviousness, all of the claim limitations must be taught or suggested by the prior art. See MPEP 2143. However, Bayeh fails to teach or suggest that "the display control file, the CGI scripts, and the processing program are configured separately." See claim 5. Instead, Bayeh describes a system wherein the execution file and the data Servlets are not configured separately. For example, the characteristic flow of processing according to Bayeh is as follows: (a) access to data Servlets; (b) performing data retrieval by the data Servlets; and (c) providing an output by a rendering server according to the result of said data retrieval and XML. Thus, in Bayeh the data Servlets perform the data retrieval. Accordingly, contrary to the configuration of the presently claimed invention, the execution file and the data Servlets are not configured separately.

In view of the remarks above, Applicants respectfully submit that a prima facie case of obviousness has not been made with regards to the subject matter of independent claims 5.

Also, for the reasons discussed above, Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner withdraw the obviousness rejections of claims 6-8, which depend from independent claim 5.

Conclusion

In view of the aforementioned amendments and accompanying remarks, Applicants respectfully submit that the claims, as herein amended, are in condition for allowance. Applicants request such action at an early date.

If the Examiner believes that this application is not now in condition for allowance, the Examiner is requested to contact Applicants' undersigned attorney to arrange for an interview to expedite the disposition of this case.
